The Wild West – The Good The Bad and The Ugly?

"Are there unfair practices in construction projects in Western Australia?"

Join the Society of Construction Law Australia,
Master Builders Association of Western Australia and Consult Australia

for a public discussion about the current state of contracting practices on construction projects in Western Australia.
Panellists will represent the various stakeholders in the construction industry, namely principals (Government and private), contractors, consultants and subcontractors

You will learn from them on practices you have seen and are concerned about, extending to:

- The current state of procurement in WA
- Risk transfer
- Contracting terms and conditions
- Practices during contract administration
- Practices during claims management and dispute resolution

Panellists:

|---|---|
| Private Sector Principal | Fleur Hudson – Executive Director, Iris Residential (formerly TRG Properties) |
| Builder | Dean Goodliffe – experienced construction executive and previously Managing Director, Broad Construction |
| Consultant | Kiri Parr – Regional (Asia-Pacific) Legal Counsel, Arup and National Chair, Consult Australia |
| Government | Phil Helberg – Deputy Director General, Department of Finance, Building Management and Works |
| Subcontractors | Daniel Hunt – Engineering Development Manager, ENGIE Services |
