Dear Member

You are invited to attend the second event in 2018 of the International Arbitration Series, a joint initiative of the CI Arb Australia and Federal Court of Australia. To be held in Brisbane, the seminar will be broadcast across Australia via the FCA court network. Please note while the event is free for CI Arb members and guests, registrations are essential.

Addressed by a distinguished chair and panel, the topics of the seminar will focus on Transparency, Efficiency, Enforceability and Diversity. This will be followed by a Q & A session. Drinks and canapés will be served at the conclusion of proceedings (in Brisbane only).

Chair: The Hon Justice Sarah Derrington, Justice of the Federal Court of Australia and President of the Australian Law Reform Commission

Transparency: The duty of disclosure by arbitrators of potential conflicts of interest: the role of 'soft' law - Richard Morgan, Barrister-At-Law, QLD Bar

Efficiency: A new paradigm of resolving disputes: What arbitration can learn from statutory adjudication - Russell Thirgood, Head of Arbitration | Arbitrator, McCullough Robertson

Enforceability: Enforceability: why the arbitration debate is about more than efficiency and costs - Brenda Horrigan, Head of International Arbitration, Herbert Smith Freehills

Diversity: Diversity in arbitration: a fresh approach to a familiar topic - Erika Williams, Director, ArbitralWomen

Date:

Thursday, 14 June 2018

Time:

5.15 pm - 6.15 pm (with networking drinks in Brisbane until 7.15pm)

Venue:

Federal Court of Australia

Court 1, Harry Gibbs Commonwealth Law Courts Building 119 North Quay, Brisbane

RSVP:

By no later than Monday, 11 June 2018
