The Society of Construction Law Australia

INVITES YOU TO A PRESENTATION ON:

"Defects on large-scale construction projects – what you need to know following recent cases including Opal and Lacrosse"

Michael Whitten QC and Andrew Downie, Barristers

Tuesday 28 May 2019

5:45pm for 6:00pm start

This presentation will provide a refresher on the law surrounding defects and rectification issues on large-scale construction projects with a focus on lessons learned from recent case studies such as the cladding issues on the Lacrosse building in Melbourne and structural issues on the Opal building in Sydney.

Michael Whitten QC is a barrister with over 20 years of experience working on many high profile construction disputes and matters. Andrew Downie is a barrister with over 10 years of experience working on construction matters and has worked on many complex construction cases.
